BUSINESS ACADEMY

Welcome to Rising Stars Business Academy YouthBuild (RSBAYB). Rising Stars Business Academy is a 501©3 non-profit organization that provides tutoring, mentorship, leadership development, etiquette classes, life skills, computer classes, entrepreneurship, vocational classes, job readiness, career development, business workshops, resume writing, counseling, motivational workshops, events, motivational speakers, college readiness, educational field trips, scholarships, extracurricular activities and much more.

Rising Stars Business Academy is a YouthBuild Affiliate and is partnered with YouthBuild Charter School of California for their educational services. With the unique blend of these three organizations, RSBA YouthBuild can offer students between the ages of 16-24 the opportunity to receive their WASC Accredited High School Diploma through our partner, YouthBuild Charter School of California (YCSC).

Students must enroll in Rising Stars Business Academy YouthBuild and be accepted before enrolling into YCSC. Students go through a formal interview process and will be informed if they are accepted into the program after completing their Mental Toughness training. Students go through mandatory workshops including, bullying, sexual harassment, rules & policies, team building activities, etc. (See RSBA YB student handbook for detailed rules & policies). Students who fail to adhere to the rules and policies at RSBAYB will jeopardize their enrollment in the program. If a student has been self-exited from RSBA YouthBuild, he/she will instantaneously be exited from YCSC.

I understand if I am accepted into RSBA YouthBuild, that I will follow all rules and policies that have been put in place. I further understand that if I do not follow the rules and policies of RSBA YouthBuild, that I may be exited or placed on probation from the program until further notice.
